Inverted Hammer

The index settled on a reactive note by way of an inverted hammer candlestick formation yesterday, indicating a halt in upwards momentum. We prefer to shift immediate outlook to a neutral stance awaiting fresh directional signals. With immediate upside seen checked by resistance clustered b/w 47,086 and 47,661 levels, the index can ease towards 44,797 and 44,121 levels to adjust the daily stochastic readings. Traders are advised to accumulate at such weakness.
